HARMONY ASSEMBLY

Yesterday the school came together to celebrate Harmony Day with an assembly led by room 10A. It was special time, with multicultural items held to show aspects of our great society. Children had fun dressed in orange adornments, sang ‘Que Sera’ and presented their class Harmony Map of Australian. These will be displayed in the library for viewing. Special thanks are extended to the organising committee led by Heather Kiernan.

Harmony Assembly!

SCHOOL WEBSITE UPGRADE

Our IT staff have designed a new and improved school website that is now online. It has information including: upcoming events, policies, downloadable forms, notices and newsletters. You can google search our school page or access at: http://walkvleps.sa.edu.au/

Please note that a small number of parents have found difficulty viewing our school website because of using outdated Internet Explorer browsers. Those using an outdated version of their browser will see a pop-up on the web page advising of this and requesting that you update to the latest version by clicking the link provided. This will help viewing of other web pages and update your own security.

We hope you enjoy our new look school website and thank Travis Braithwaite and Matthew Croall for their great work.
